

GACE® Birth Through Kindergarten Assessment Test II (006) Curriculum Crosswalk

Required Coursework Numbers

Subarea I. Teaching and Learning (52%)
Objective 1: Understands how to promote language and skills development, design curriculum, and select and use assessments
A. Understands how to design, implement, and evaluate environments to assure developmental and functional appropriateness
B. Understands the importance of promoting the development of children’s self-regulatory skills
C. Understands how assessments are an integral part of an education program and knows how to select, adjust, and utilize assessments for the benefit of children
D. Knows how to design and implement developmentally and individually appropriate interdisciplinary curriculum
E. Understands how to support and facilitate development of language in order to teach reading, writing, speaking, viewing, listening, and thinking skills
F. Knows how to help children successfully apply their developing skills to many different situations, materials, and ideas

Required Coursework Numbers

Subarea II. Meaningful Curriculum for Learning (48%)
Objective 1: Understands how to promote early learning in literacy, mathematics, science, social studies, the arts, and Physical Education
A. Understands how to provide children varied opportunities to develop early literacy skills
B. Understands how to provide children varied opportunities to learn concepts of mathematics
C. Understands how to provide children varied opportunities to learn the principles of science
D. Understands how to provide children varied opportunities to learn the foundations of social studies
E. Understands how to provide children varied opportunities to develop creative expression and an appreciation of the arts
F. Understands how to provide children varied opportunities to learn about health and physical education															